Network Item Billing to Resume May 17

The Minuteman Network is resuming the billing of long-overdue items, starting May 17. These bills may block the use of your card (if totaling more than $100) for reserving books and museum passes until they are resolved. Once a book is returned, the billed cost will be removed.

THE COOKING GENE

with author and historian Michael W. Twitty

Thursday, June 10 at 7:00 p.m.

ON ZOOM

Register through the online calendar.

For African American culinary historian Michael W. Twitty, there was a giant hole in the story of American cooking as big as the one in the story of most African American families. Putting the microscope on himself, Michael decided to fully trace out his family history through the story of Southern and American food. Using genetic research, historic interpretation, nature study, heirloom gardening and interviews with contemporary voices in food, his journey led him back to his family's origins in West and Central Africa and a front ring seat in the debate over race and food in American life.

2021 SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

Kid Edition

Can you rise to the challenge to keep reading all summer long?

As we will be prepping to move back to our library on High Street, we're keeping the summer reading challenge simple and sweet this year.

Children ages 0-12 (or entering grade 5) can register for the Kid Edition Summer Reading Challenge at www.medfordlibrary.beanstack.org and log every minute they're reading from June 19th-August 31st.

Summer is a great time to try out new books and explore different ways of reading. But don't forget that everything counts! Newspapers, magazines, comics, audiobooks—hey, if you're reading, COUNT those minutes.

WHY? Because this year our Summer Reading Prize is the best one ever!!!

Our top 5 readers and 3 random 'raffled' winners [plus their families] will get a once in a lifetime opportunity to sneak into the NEW Medford Public Library before it opens to the public for an all-access tour and ice cream party.

So...are you ready?
