The novel revolves around Ingrid, an eighth grade soccer player who enjoys acting in plays. While walking home, Ingrid gets lost and meets a mysterious person, but on her way out, leaves her soccer shoes. She tries to get her shoes back but ends up in the middle of a murder case which she has to solve quickly without anyone knowing the truth. Can she solve the murder mystery before it's too late?

I would recommend this book because it enthralls readers with mystery, suspense and an intriguing plot that makes you want to read every last word. I think this book should be read by young adults because it revolves around Ingrid who is dishonest and impulsive because she breaks the law, lies to her parents and the police and skips school. She copies her homework and sneaks out of her house in the middle of the night. There is also a lot of strong language and it mentions a lot of drug usage and drinking alcohol.
