TEEN TAKE AND MAKE BLACKOUT POETRY

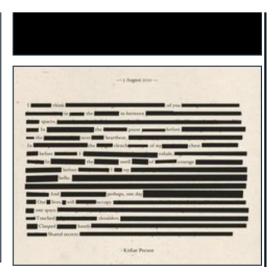

There are no right or wrong ways to create blackout poetry!

Take a page from a discarded book and skim for words that stand out to you. Decide what words and letters you want to keep to make your poem.

Cover the rest of the page with markers or any other craft supply you have on hand. You can completely black out all of the words you aren't using, leaving just your poem uncovered, or you can draw images over the words you aren't using. Either way, it's breathing new life into old art!

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Medford Arts Council, a local commission that is supported by the Mass Cultural Council and the City of Medford.