Belly waits for summer to come around to be at the beach house again. She loves the beach, yes, but she loves Conrad, Jeremiah, and Susannah more. Susannah is Belly's mom best friend. This is Belly's summer and nothing will stop her.

I think that if you're into complicated romances, you should read this whole book series. It has wonderful ending to the series and was overall very interesting to read. I couldn't put the books down. The books are sad at some points, and if you don't like crying over books maybe you wouldn't want to read this one.

Also, one of my personal favorite characters had great character development. The storyline of the books was really good and written well. Also, there is a new show of these books that I recommend watching after you read the books. I personally like the books better but the show was amazing too.
