Bella Swan has to move in with her dad in a cold, rainy town called Forks, Washington. When she goes to school, she meets Edward Cullen. She discovers that he is a vampire, and naturally, she falls in love. But it isn't happily ever after. They have trouble dealing with other vampires who don't understand how his vampire family can interact with a mortal girl without drinking her blood.

Personally, I really liked this book. I think that people should read this book if they like romance books with a lot of drama. I read this book in less than a week and I had school every day too. I did notice a couple of obvious grammar and spelling errors though, so if you don't like reading books with obvious errors, maybe don't read this. Also, if you don't like supernatural fantasy books, you shouldn't read this.

Apart from the occasional spelling errors, this book was really good. It was very interesting to read and didn't have an absolutely predictable ending. My personal favorite books throughout the whole series were Twilight and New Moon. I suggest reading these two books - the movies are good, but the books are better.
