After finally discovering that Oak is the heir to the throne, Jude has made herself queen with Cardan by her side, acting as a puppet. She had to find her way through the political pacts of Faerie and Cardan is doing everything he can to put her to shame. Soon, she finds out that a traitor's upon her and She needs to find out who it is, before it's too late. She doesn't know who to trust or what to do. Can she take everything on by herself, or will she need some help?

The Wicked King is the sequel to The Cruel Prince. It is an amazing book with many twists and turns along the way. The book is well structured and has extremely well written characters. The setting makes the whole story come to life and makes it feel like you're inside the book. It's a book you won't ever want to put down.
