I just enjoyed reading Eight Nights of Flirting by Hannah Reynolds.

Shira Barbanel is planning to get a boyfriend this Hanukkah, but she is horrible at flirting. The perfect person to teach her is Tyler Nelson, her former crush. When they get snowed in at Golden Doors, they create a deal - lessons on flirting for Shira and a three meetings with her great-uncle for his career for Tyler. After spending so much time together, Shira realizes she actually enjoys spending time with Tyler.

I think everyone should read this book! It is well-written, entertaining, and keeps you on the edge of your seat the entire time. The types of readers that would like this book are romance readers. The novel focuses on the flirting and feelings to the main characters.
