Volunteer at the Library!

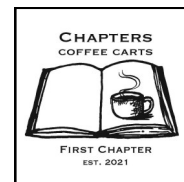

The Library is looking for volunteers. If you are interested in volunteering and desire a flexible schedule, email Sam at medford@minlib.net and she will set up a time to train you on reshelving books.

If you would like to do a one-off program, or would like to volunteer at a specific time, email Sam and she will get you badged in the Makerspace and set up times to run a program.

Homebound Delivery

Home delivery service is available for those who are homebound or unable to visit the library in person. If you or a family member could benefit from this service, please contact the Library by at 781-395-7950.

Chapters Coffee Cart

Chapters Coffee Cart in the 2nd floor lobby will be closing at the end of September.

Chapters is not just about coffee – the cart employed and supported the endeavors of people with disabilities.

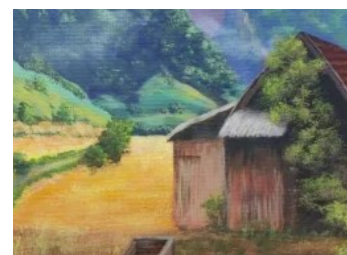

Stop by today and wish them luck on their next great adventures.

In the Gallery

September

Sam Morse, Landscapes

My name is Sam and I am a 24 year-old robotics technician originally from Fitchburg MA! I've been painting for about 10 years now off and on and specialize exclusively in acrylic landscapes on canvas. I sell high quality prints on canvas on my website sammorseart.com

October

Phillip Olander, New England Paintings

My paintings are about the spirit of place, the genus loci. A successful painting should enable the viewer to conjure the felt experience of a particular time and place. Most of my work depicts the New England coast and points of local interest. Included in the October show will be several views of the Mystic River at Medford, like the one pictured here.

November

Peter Rosenberg collaboration with Julian Chagrin, Untitled

Peter Rosenberg is collaborating with Julian Chagrin on an art show that is a study of human emotions during stressful times.

Through evolving cultures, relationships, cameras, and a wide range of photographic interests, Peter L. Rosenberg has been practicing photography since the summer of the US Bicentennial in 1976. His photography is personal and, in a sense, autobiographical.

African American, Native American, and Afro-Native Histories of Medford Thursday, September 26 from 7 - 8 PM

This roundtable will feature several of the historians and scholars behind the newly founded university initiative at Tufts to explore the history of slavery and colonialism within and beyond Medford. Founded in 2023, the Slavery, Colonialism, and their Legacies at Tufts (SCL) initiative explores the university's historical ties to racial slavery, the slave trade, and colonialism in Massachusetts and across the Atlantic world, including the historic Black and Afro Native communities of Charlestown and Medford; the Universalist religious tradition upon which Tufts was founded and its relationship to slavery, anti-slavery, and social movements; and the long presence of African-descended and indigenous students on Tufts' campus.

The Salem Witchcraft Trials: What Really Happened? Thursday, October 17 from 7 - 8 PM

The Salem Witchcraft trials constitute one of the most mysterious and fascinating events in American history. Discover the "perfect storm" of conditions that culminated in tragic circumstances that have haunted us for centuries. Judge Dennis J. Curran will explode five myths behind the outbreak of allegations of witchcraft in colonial America, examine the villains and heroes involved, and try to determine the reasons behind a raging mass hysteria. Whether we live in 17th century New England or today, people are susceptible to the same dark fears and influences.

What's Faith Got to do With It? Thursday, November 7 from 7 - 8 PM

"Let go of your story... Connect to God's Glory!" A look at some of the Remarkable History of Shiloh Baptist Church of West Medford with Pastor Gerald E. Bell.

This presentation will focus on the rich 127-year history of Shiloh Baptist Church as a cornerstone institution in the African American community in West Medford and on the future of this important house of worship in Medford. It will also include a chronological look at my journey as a 7-year-old Indiana boy survivor of senseless gun violence to a 65-year-old dreamer and pastor who is not finished yet. To describe myself as having a courageous heart is both arrogant and legitimate because fear has been my constant companion.

Author Visits

Carmen Maria Machado

Monday, October 7 from 7 - 8 PM

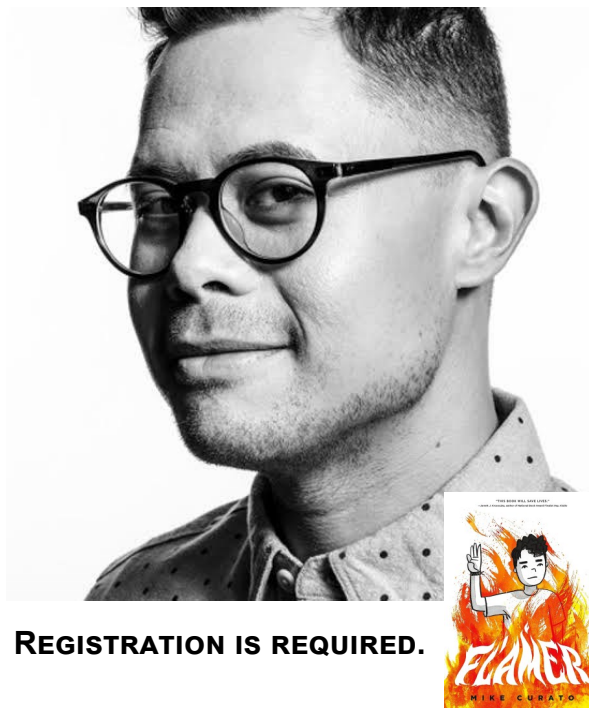

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED.

Carmen Maria Machado, a finalist for the National Book Award and the author of the bestselling memoir In the Dream House, the graphic novel The Low, Low Woods, and the short story collection Her Body and Other Parties, will be coming to the Medford Public Library for a discussion about her books and writing process.

Whether you're a long-time fan or new to her work, this talk promises to offer a fascinating glimpse into the mind of one of literature's most striking voices.

Mike Curato

Thursday, October 10 from 6 - 8 PM

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED.

Medford Public Library and the Royall House and Slave Quarters are inviting you to a conversation with novelist Michael Curato about his award winning book, Flamer. Set in 1995 at a Boy Scouts summer camp, Flamer, tells the story of Aiden, a 14 year old who is on a journey of figuring himself and his sexuality out. Semi-autobiographical, Curato's courageous book was met with controversy, topping many banned book lists. Join us for an intimate discussion about the importance of telling queer and BIPOC stories and the fight to bring awareness to the banning of books in our schools and libraries.

The discussion will be followed by audience Q&A and light refreshments provided by Boukan'nen (a locally Black owned business). Free giveaways will be provided to the first 25 guests who arrive, and book signing will occur at the event's end.

Out and About in Town...

While we LOVE you visiting us at the Library, we know that sometimes that learning happens best when it is beyond our walls. We have several walks, outreach programs, and adventures happening out and about town this Fall.

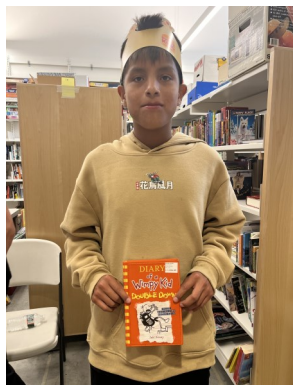

Be sure to check them out:

- 1– Dee Morris's Wellington Area Walking History Tour. Saturday, Sept. 28 start at 10 AM. Meet at the intersection of Riverside and Middlesex Ave.
- 2– Mushroom Walk in the Fells. Sunday, Oct. 6 start at 10 AM. Meet at South Border Rd. Parking Lot.
- 3– Harvest Your Energy Festival. Saturday, Oct. 19 from 12 - 3 PM. Outdoor festival at Riverbend Park.
- 4– Haunted Doll Scavenger Hunt. Sunday, Oct. 27 start at 1 - 3PM. Wright's Pond Parking Lot.
- 5– Medicinal Plants Walk. Wednesday, Oct. 30 start at 4:30 PM. Meet at Medford Library, High Street Entrance.

If you have a community outreach event and think the Library (and our amazing librarians) should come out, feel free to ask for our availability by emailing medford@minlib.net.

In early July the FMPL were so pleased to host the kids from the Lakota Youth Stay for a visit in our sorting room to pick out some books to take home.

This fall check out these Museum Passes funded by the Friends of the Medford Public Library.

Drumlin Farm in Lincoln is one of the closest locations. Here you can experience life on a working farm and explore a wildlife sanctuary at the same time.

The Trustees invite you to get out and explore Massachusetts. Go relax on the beach, bike through the woods, have a picnic in the park, or run the kids around! One of their most popular properties is deCordova Sculpture Park and Museum in Lincoln.

Come to our annual Fall Book Sale:

Saturday September 20, 9 AM - 3 PM
Sunday September 21 2 - 5 PM
Preview Friday September 19 6:30 - 8:30 PM
 for members only - you can join at the door!

Books, Music, Puzzles, Games and lots more.
 (there's a bake sale on Saturday too!)

Every Day Book Sale Shelf

You never know what kinds of treasures you will find on the Every Day Book Sale Shelf near the adult circulation desk.
The selection changes daily. You can pay cash or use the QR code to pay with card.

Did you know that everything we sell at our Book Sales is donated to us?

If you have books, games, puzzles, CDs, or DVDs that you no longer need, consider donating them.

Donations can be left at either of the circulation desks in the MPL anytime the library is open (please do not leave them in the book drop or the hallway.)

Check our website to see what we accept.

Join the Friends!

Make a donation or volunteer your time and help us bring even more excellent events and services to our community!
