Unseelie by Ivelisse Houseman is the story of two twin sisters. The main character of the book is one of these two, a changeling in the form of a human named Iselia. The two find themselves on a harrowing adventure full of magic and friendship. Will they find what they seek?

I really enjoyed this story. The writing was captivating and it kept me coming back eager for more each time I opened the book. The emotion nearly made me cry in some parts. The characters feel real and detailed. I would recommend this book to anyone who enjoys a good fantasy book. If you like magic and unlikely friendships, this is a great book for you.
