The book Another First Chance follows the story of a high schooler named River Lang. After the death of his best friend in a car accident, River is annoyed at the way Dylan is used as an example. After being caught vandalizing the bill board made in Dylan's name to prevent another accident, he is blackmailed into joining the Affinity Trials, a study for kids struggling socially.

In my opinion this book was good, but could have been better. This book covers the topics of grief and how it affects people, especially how it affects kids. I felt that the book felt rushed at moments and at other moments felt like it was going too slow.
