The Maze Runner by James Dashner is about a boy named Thomas who wakes up in a huge area called the glade, and he wakes up with no memory. No one has ever escaped the enormous maze that circles the Glade and is altered daily. Thomas befriends other people who are stranded there as well, and the two of them work to find a way out while navigating strange beings known as griever.

This book, in my opinion, is incredibly thrilling and action-packed. It keeps you curious about what will happen next because there's always something going on. I enjoyed how the characters had to cooperate in order to survive, and the maze is both really cool and strange. The story was enjoyable to read, though there were times when I wished we knew more about some of the characters.

I would recommend this book to people who enjoy adventure, mystery, and fantasy books. The book makes you want to read the next book to find out what happens.
