The novel This Story Is A Lie follows 17 year old Peter Blankman and his brilliant mind that slowly eats itself with fear. He follows and sometimes leads his sister and his friend through travels that put them through things no one thought a 17 year old should endure. Peter Blankman is an extraordinary person that doesn't want to be, and is put in unbelievable and extraordinary situations.

This novel truly is wonderful in all of its insanity and I believe it is one of the greatest books I have ever read. It is just unbelievable in all of its aspects. The writing, the compassion, and the gargantuan use of curse words. This novel is literally a work of art. The only reason I gave this book a 10/10 is because I couldn't go any further. It is a bit of a thing some may not enjoy because someone might find it a little out there. This Story Is A Lie may be a little out there, but from panic attacks, explosions, to complete and utter mayhem, this story is full of, and is, a lie.
