A boy named Stanley Yelnats IV was accused of stealing shoes. The line of men on his family name are accused to be cursed from an old promise the first Stanley Yelnats had made. He is then sent to camp Green Lake where he serves his time and meets new people.

Honestly I loved the book. It really digs into the story of the past Stanley Yelnats and as to what promise he broke. If you love books that really dig into characters plots and is easy to pick up and includes old curses I would recommend you read this.
