Summary

There are two main characters in the book Oli and Nina. Oli is a cottonmouth spirit so he can turn into a human and a snake. Nina is a normal human who is obsessed with translating the final words of her great grandmother. Then when one of Oli's friends is going extinct he must save their species. He, two cyote twins named Risk and Reign, and his friend Brightest must travel to earth and even fight a tornado to save his friend Amis species.

Review

I definitely recommend the book for anyone interested in adventure. It was so fun reading that I spent 4 and a half hours at the library reading with no breaks. The characters are likeable and the story was really well thought out. The book at the beginning was kind of slow to the story but the author redeemed it with rest. Overall the book was very great to read and I enjoyed it.
