When Grace's parents die, she gets sent to Katmere Academy, where her uncle is headmaster. She discovers that the school is full of paranormal creatures. Things get more and more complicated as she meets a mysterious boy, Jaxon Vega, who acts like an annoyingly sexy superstar. Soon, she is lost in a sea of conspiracies, emotions, and of course, romance.

Crave by Tracy Wolff is a wonderful book. It is full of twists and turns and mysterious characters. It is a spectacularly well-written book. You would enjoy reading it if you like paranormals, mystery, and intense romance. No complaints at all. The characters are mysterious, complicated, and, well, human. Tracy Wolff is a brilliant author. The plot is enthralling and complex. I never thought I'd find a perfect book, but here I am.

I never thought that I'd like a book like this. You might not think so, too. Mystery has never really been my genre. I usually lean towards fantasy and adventure. Mystery might not be your favorite genre either, and maybe you don't appreciate romance, but I strongly encourage you to read this novel. It really is a masterpiece. You definitely end up enjoying it as much as I did. The only reason you shouldn't read it is if you dislike intense romance. But even then, from this book - you'll probably develop a taste for it. I definitely recommend this book. Do yourself a favor and read it!
