One punch man is a satirical super hero manga, that has an overpowered protagonist who kills everything in one punch. (like the title) It follows Saitama, who one day decided to become a hero to escape his office job, and eventually trained so hard that he now beats every villain without trying. His overwhelming strength bores Saitama, because its too easy for him.

One Punch man is a decent manga that has impeccable art, but is weighed down by its mundane story. There is barely any story, as it only follows a new villain of the week being introduced, and Saitama eventually beating it. The manga is pretty funny however, due to it being a parody of most super hero tropes, and it made me chuckle a couple times. The best part is the art by Yusuke Murata, because its phenomenal, and definitely enhances the experience. Overall, one punch man is fun, not great but still fun, and I recommend it to enjoyers of shonen action manga and comedy manga.
