The Summer I Turned Pretty follows Belly, a teenage girl who spends every summer at a beach house with her family and family friends. This summer feels different because Belly is growing up and starting to see the people around her in a new way. As she navigates friendships, family relationships, and first love, she learns more about herself.

I enjoyed this book because it is easy to read and has relatable characters. I would recommend it to readers who enjoy romance, friendship, and coming-of-age stories. The beach setting and emotional moments make it a fun and memorable book for teens.
