Komi Can't Communicate is about Hitohito Tadano going to this school called Itan Private High school. In school he meets a girl that he sits next to called Komi, and something unique about her is that she has difficulty talking to others because of a speaking disorder. Tadano goes through his couple days of school to help her talk more, and introduces his friend Najimi to Komi.

People who like to relax, read slice of life, and romance would enjoy this book a lot. Also people that like a good story with specific and unique side characters. As well as suspenseful times with a unique plot.
